

Jimmie Lee – the Jersey Outlaw – Goes All-in

THE BAD BOY of Country Rock, Jimmie Lee, The Jersey Outlaw, is all-in as he releases his new hit single I'M ALL IN to the poker world. The new song makes its debut early this year on media and television at poker events and at celebrity poker tournaments. The Jersey Outlaw plans to make a big splash in the poker world with the Jimmie Lee signature T-shirt, now available at High Roller Clothing (highrollerclothing.com). Most recently, Jimmie and star models Francesca and Wisa Milan collided at the

The Jersey Outlaw Road Tour for 2011 is just beginning with planned stops in Las Vegas, Los Angeles, San Antonio, Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Atlantic City and more. With his sold-out shows in Vegas and his opening for legendary rocker George Thorogood, it's clear Jimmie is taking the fast track to country rock stardom!

The Jersey Outlaw brings a new breed of country rock music to the scene – a country horse-powered sound – that's sure to bring any house down! The Outlaw has already released several CDs full of catchy, energetic tunes, all produced by Grammy music producer David Ivory. Jimmie's hits include Let's Go, Kickin' Ass, Country Rocker, Forever 29, Gimme A Holler, Cross Country 4 Wheel Drive and many other hot songs.

Now the time is right for Jimmie Lee to make his mark on the poker world. Be sure to check out Jimmie at www.jimmieeesongs.com and on Facebook. ♠

BACK TO MACAU IN 2011

It's nearly five years since no-limit hold'em was introduced to the Vegas of the East – Macau. Since then, the PokerStars Macau poker room in the Grand Lisboa casino has become a leading venue for live poker in Asia, and it will see plenty of action once again in 2011.

Special events include the Macau Poker Cup series February 21-28; the Macau Poker Cup Championship October 7-16; the Macau Millions April 2-10; and the annual Asia-Pacific Poker Tour Macau, which is set to return in November.

There will be a number of changes expected to generate bigger and richer events. The long-running Red Dragon Main Event will have a slightly larger buy-in (HKD$11,000), a larger starting stack of 15,000 chips, and, most notably, a guaranteed prize pool of HKD$3,000,000.

The MPC has also seen its schedule expanded from five to seven days to accommodate the growing popularity of the series. The week will feature six events, including a special charity event with HKD$50,000 in added prizes.

For the complete Macau Poker Cup schedule, please go to the PokerStars Macau website. ♠
