

User:

Pass:

Remember Me

Forgot Password? Username? | Register

Woman Poker Player magazine

Home

Poker News

Women of Poker

Tournaments

Poker Strategy

Lifestyle

Entertainment

Blogs

Community

I'm All In to Hit iPods This Week

Tuesday, 11 January 2011 09:33

Woman Poker Player contributor Danielle Adams-Benham has taken her writing to a new creative level by co-writing the new hit song "I'm ALL IN" by Jimmie Lee, Jersey Outlaw being released this week on iTunes and CDBaby.

The Jersey Outlaw and our own Hot Aussie Chick decided there were just not enough poker songs available to grind away to as poker players everywhere listen to music while playing.

5 tweets

retweet

59 shares

Share

Everyone know the songs "The Gambler" by Kenny Rogers and "Poker Face" by Lady Gaga, but the pair decided that a little new age rock with a country fling was on the cards. Jimmie Lee expects that his new song release will climb the charts like previous poker songs have.

I'm ALL IN perfectly captures the emotions that a poker player feels when they are sweating it out in a big tournament or cash game praying that the poker gods will deliver the right card to seal their fate.

There is no doubt that most poker players can relate to the song with a few of the lyrics below.

"Sweatin' and a Shakin' as I play my last hand, this could be the beginning or could be the end"

"My chips are on the table I got one card to go, I gotta hit the river, man, or I'm going home"

"I'm all in!"

Jimmie Lee is known for delivering power live shows and concerts, the Outlaw kicks it like nobody's business with his band behind him and packed crowd up front. Lee gives everything he has got at every live performance entertaining the crowd like his life depended on it. Lee's on stage performances and flare for chart toppers mixed with Danielle Adams-Benham's never give up attitude and drive is sure to push the poker world to their tip toes with this entrepreneurial accomplishment.

Both Jimmie Lee and Danielle Adams-Benham will be signing CD's for their fans in the months to come as Jimmie starts his 2011 tour including sold out shows in Las Vegas, and opening for legendary rocker, George Thorogood.

"I'm All In" will be played at poker events, and at Celebrity Poker Tournaments where Jimmie is sure to be shown in his new high roller clothing shirt which is available to purchase along with his CD's.

You can get more information about the Jersey Outlaw Jimmie Lee by visiting his site at www.jimmieeesongs.com.

CardPlayer Cruises

Take an exciting Poker Cruise to exotic ports!

Click HERE for details

- Hold'em
- Omaha/8
- Tournaments
- Beginners lessons

Plus all ship amenities

CardPlayerCruises.com

Advertise here

A smiling, Danielle Adams-Benham only had one thing to say about her I'm ALL IN" co-writing efforts, "You have read many of my articles, and hopefully my popular blog "Poker Down Under and Every Where Else". Sometimes we forget the words we read! I hope that my words in the song will stay in the heads of players for eternity after they catch on and purchase it." She continues with a little sing along, "I'm ALL IN! Watcha think about that? I'm ALL IN, Yeah I like it like that!"

Woman Poker Player has a preview of the song for your listening enjoyment:

You like I'm All In to Hit iPods This Week. Unlike · Admin Page · Error

Related Articles:

- Casino Caroling: Holiday Tunes, Revised for the Poker Universe
- Women's Poker Hour With Special Guest Liz Lieu
- Womens Poker Hour With Guest Beth Gains

Add comment

Name (required)

E-mail (required)

Website

1000 symbols left

Notify me of follow-up comments

Refresh

Send

