

Jimmie Lee, the Jersey Outlaw, 'Hits the River Running' With Big New Poker Single and a New Album

THE JERSEY OUTLAW, Jimmie Lee, has a brand-new album, JIMMIE LEE-KID VEGAS that's hitting the stands right now. Get ready to rumble as Jimmie releases "HIT THE RIVER RUNNING" on this CD, a hot new single aimed at the poker world. The new single has been co-written by "HotAussieChick" Danielle Adams-Benham, and promises to take the poker world by storm. The song's driving rock beat with Jimmie's killer vocals perfectly captures the emotions poker players feel as they sweat out the river card.

Jimmie Lee has already received critical acclaim for his first poker song, "I'M ALL IN," and now he has a followup poker tune. This single will be featured in major poker publications and will also be heard on poker radio, including OnTiltRadio, Short Stacked Radio and more. Rumor has it that the new tune may make it to the final table of the World Series of Poker this November in Las Vegas.

The Outlaw has just signed big deals with LIPS (Ladies International Poker Series), HokesHouse, and Poker Euphoria, and will be making select appearances at celebrity tournaments throughout the year. Jimmie and The Bandito Girls do live shows at these events that are always a big hit with players. So keep your eyes wide open for The Jersey Outlaw, as he will be the featured artist at these events.

The new song can be checked out at www.jimmieeesongs.com, CDBaby, iTunes, and YOUTUBE.

So if you are looking for the right song to pump through your headset as you push your chips all-in, this latest single from Jimmie Lee might be just what your MP3 player needs! ♠
